

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE & PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

M.A POLITICAL SCIENCE (Five-Year) Programme

ENGC-12: English through Literature I: Prose

Course Outcomes At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To equip students about the Western literature
2. To make able in language proficiency
3. To compare western literature and eastern

POLC-13- Political Theory

Course Outcomes:

Students may understand the foundational principles of politics

May grasp the functions of Government Know about the different types of Government

POLC-14-Indian National Movement and Constitutional Development Since -1858

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able

1. To trace out the roots of Freedom struggle
2. To acquaint with the Noble ideals of the National movement
3. To identify the real patriotism
4. To understand about noble cherished ideals of the Indian national movement

ENSC15- Environmental Studies

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To evaluate the present condition of environmental pollution
2. To understand the nature of the atmosphere
3. To be aware of causes of pollution and precautionary measure

POLA-16- Ancient Indian History

Course Outcomes

1. To apprise about historical background of India
2. To acquaint about ancient culture of India
3. To impart knowledge about the Social, economic and cultural aspects of Indian History

Semester II - ENGC-22- English Through Literature II: Poetry

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able

1. To equip students about the Western literature
2. To make able in language proficiency
3. To compare western literature and eastern

POLC-23- INTRODUCTION TO INDIAN CONSTITUTION

Course Outcomes At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To trace out different phases of the law of the land
2. To identify the important provisions of the raj empire.
3. To evaluate the British imperialistic policies

POLC-24- International Organisations

Course Outcomes

Know the major analytical and theoretical framework relevant to organization

1. To reason out the values of global organization
2. To understand about UNO
3. To know the impact of chemical weapons

POLC-25- Principles of Public Administration

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the course, the student will be able

1. To critically engage various disciplines perspectives and theoretical
2. To the studies of public administration and governance
3. To understand the core theories, concepts and approach used in various subfields of public administration

POLA-26- Principles of Economics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able

1. To understand theories and principles of micro economics including price, market trade.
2. Understand theories and principles Macro-economics, including national income, accounting, market, fiscal policy and monetary policy.
3. Be acquainted with the futuristic prevalence economic resources.

Semester II POLE27 - Organs of Government (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To understand about governance in a broader way,
2. To learn about parties and
3. To know about pressure groups.

Semester II POLE28 -WOMEN STUDIES (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To be apprised of the rights of Women
2. To understand about the empowerment Political issues and women Development of Women.

Semester: III ENGC-32 English Through Literature III: Drama

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To equip students about the Western literature
2. To make able in language proficiency
3. To compare western literature and eastern

Semester- III 19POLC-33 – Logic

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To understand about logical enquiry
2. To analyze about the classifications
3. To arrive at logical Inferences.

Semester- III POLC-34- Indian Political System

Course Outcomes

1. The course will present you about the Indian Political Systems.
2. The course will give introduction about the idea of political systems and the account of the making and working of constitutional institution
3. To study the Indian Political systems in a way to understand political factor in the Society

Semester- III POLA-35 - Computer and its Applications

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able

1. To acquire knowledge about the computer
2. To write about basic Programmes
3. To be trained in Internet functions

Semester IV- POLA36- Value Education and Spirituality

Course Outcomes:

1. To learn about value education
2. to empower education to make or create lifelong learners.
3. To understand the concept of Human Moral Values and life skill development

Semester III- POLE37- E-Governance (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To be apprised with the basics of e-governance
2. To understand about the issues related with e-governance
3. To know the impact of e-governance in Indian system

Semester III- POLE38 -Comparative Administrative Systems (UK, USA, RUSSIA) (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To be apprised about different administrative systems
2. To understand about the functioning of Executives of nations
3. To learn about the local governments of Nations

Semester II SSC300 -Soft Skills- I (Communication Skills)

Course Outcomes

1. Upon completion of the course students will be able to
2. Make effective presentations and showcase mastery in communication
3. Achieve excellence in both personal and professional life
4. Prepare their own resume and understand the importance of preparing resume

Semester- IV ENGC-42 English through Literature IV: Short Story

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To be trained in basic language
2. To improve spoken English
3. To be aware about the several literatures

Semester- IV POLC-43- Indian Government And Politics

Course Outcomes

1. The course will present about the Indian Political Systems
2. The course will introduce the idea of political systems and the account of the making and working of constitutional institution.

3. To study the Indian Political systems for understanding political factor in Society

Semester- IV POLC44- Local Government In India

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To be apprised about the functioning of local government
2. To understand significance rural development
3. To compare and contrast the features of local government and other forms of Governance.

Semester- IV POLC45- Select Constitutions

Course Outcomes

1. To know about different constitutions
2. To understand significance of constitutional system
3. To compare and contrast various constitutions around the world

Semester- IV POLA46- Medieval Indian History

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To inculcate the various ritual practices in Medieval India
2. To disseminate about various kingdoms
3. To introduce about several religions

Semester IV POLA47 - Indian Social Institutions

Course Outcomes:

1. To get basic insights about the Indian Society and basic structure of Social Institutions
2. To impart knowledge on Indian Marriage System and Family System
3. To ponder over knowledge on various social issues in India

Semester IV- POLE48 - India's Foreign Policy (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To have vivid understanding about India's Role in the International arena
2. To get acquaint with foreign policy of India
3. To have broad grasping of Nuclear issues

Semester IV- POLE49 -Industrial Relations And Labour Laws (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. Give knowledge about industrial issues and problems
2. To understand Labour issues and problems
3. To learn on Trade Unions and their role in industries

Semester-IV – SSC400 - Soft Skills-ii (Personality Development)

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of the course students will be able to

1. Develop confidence to face the workplace and society at large
2. Identify and kindle their inner spirit and get self-motivated
3. Understand their own strength and weakness

Semester- V POLC51 Political Thought In IndiaCourse Outcomes

After studying the course, the students should be able to

1. Develop critical thinking of Indian political thought
2. Gain knowledge of Indian philosophical and religious framework of Indian political thought
Understand the difference between western and Indian political thought

Semester- V POLC52- Political Parties In IndiaCourse Outcomes

After studying the course, the students should be able to

1. Gain knowledge of development of party system in India
2. Understand role and significance of political parties in democratic system.
3. Know about the objectives and working of leading national and regional parties of India.

Semester- V POLC53- Political SociologyCourse Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. The students should be able to understand theories and concepts of Political sociology
2. Aware of process of social changes in India
3. Develop critical thinking about political-social and economic context of political process.

Semester- V POLC54 -Experiential LearningCourse Outcomes

1. To improve the knowledge regarding the functioning of political system.
2. To know about the law-making process.
3. To be versed with Governmental and Non-Governmental organizations.

Semester V- POLE56 -Social Welfare Administration (DE)Course Outcomes:

1. To get apprise with various welfare policies
2. To know the significance of the concept of Welfare
3. To have broad understanding about India as a welfare state

Semester V- POLE57 - Political Economy of India (DE)Course Outcomes:

1. A better understanding of the concept of Political economy
2. To get acquaint with the issues of Political economy

SSC500 – Soft Skills-III– (Time And Stress Management)Course Outcomes

Upon completion of the course students will be able to

1. Understand the importance of time management in personal life and career
2. Prioritize, schedule and monitor their work and be conscious in their behavior
3. Demonstrate methods for managing projects and commitments without stress

Semester- VI POLC61-Classics –ThirukkuralCourse Outcomes

After studying the course, the students should be able to

1. Appreciate richness of Tamil literature and greatness of saint Thiruvalluvar
2. Understand concepts and principles discussed in the classic
3. Apply this knowledge in practice.

Semester- VI POLC62 - Western Political Philosophy

Course Outcomes

1. This course will strengthen the various political thought from ancient to modern political thought, and also guide the younger generation to know for the better construction of modern state
2. In this course will make the student community to understand the basic concept like the political community, social order, and human nature.
3. This course enhances the knowledge of Political thought, or political philosophy to the students and also it is nurturing the better understanding of the student community to raise the questions of power, justice, rights, law and other issues pertaining to governance.

Semester- VI POLC63- Electoral Politics In India

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. The student will understand the powers and functions of the electoral system in India.
2. This course will enhance the student community to actively participate electoral process in India and also gain knowledge about free and fair election India

Semester- VI POLC64 - Value Education

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. The students may lead a life in ethical way and also able to take ethical based rational decision in their life.
2. Better understanding of moral consciousness of day to day life.

Semester VI- POLE65 - Parliamentary System in India (DE)

Course Outcomes:

1. To apprise about procedures of parliament
2. To grasp about the functions of the parliament
3. To know about the committee system

Semester VI- POLE66 - Judicial System in India (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To understand the procedures of Indian Judiciary
2. To grasp about the amending procedures
3. To know about the Tribunals

Semester-VI SSC600 - Soft Skills -IV– (Employability Skills)

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of the course students will be able to

1. Demonstrating good relationship with their peer group in the workplace
2. Understand the importance of leadership and improve the leadership qualities
3. Prepare themselves for effective performance in interviews

Semester- VII POLC71- Principles of Political Theory

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. This course makes the students to gain Rudimentary concepts and Principles of Political Science.
2. It will enhance the better way of understanding the various Political Ideals and Ideologies in detail

Semester- VII POLC72 -Western Political Thought

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. This course will strengthen the various political thought from ancient to modern political thought, and also guide the younger generation to know for the better construction of modern state
2. This course will make the student community to understand the basic concept like the political community, social order, and human nature.
3. This course enhances the knowledge of Political thought, or political philosophy to the students and also it is nurturing the better understanding of the student community to raise the questions of power, justice, rights, law and other issues pertaining to governance.

Semester- VII POLC73- Indian Constitution and Administration

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. This course provided well in-depth knowledge about the constitutional provision.
2. This course makes the students to understand the Center, State and Local Government.
3. This course makes active deliberation about amendment process in India.

Semester- VII POLC74- Theories and Practices of Public Administration

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. The student will be familiar with the mechanisms operating in the major political institutions and agencies for the creation and implementation of public policies.
2. The student will be familiar with the predominant political, economic, and social actors that actively engage in the policymaking process, including expert communities, interest groups, the media, agency bureaucrats, and elected officials

Semester- VIII POLC81 - Indian Political Thought

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Students may have broad understanding about the Indian Philosophers and also cherishes the ideals of national movement of India
2. Able to differentiate moderates and extremists
3. Acquaint with roots of modern India

Semester- VIII POLC82 – Dynamics of Indian Democracy

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be

1. Makes well equipped with the knowledge about the constitutional provision of India for their career life.
2. This course makes the students to understand the Center, State and Local Government in detail. This course makes active deliberation about electoral process in India
3. It enriches the knowledge and understand the consisting during issues in India

Semester- VIII POLC83 - International Politics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To produce capable Students community with clear ideas on International Politics
2. To make awareness about World Affairs which may broaden the knowledge of Students community.
3. To generate inquisitive awareness about the present world order and also about what happenings

Semester- VIII POLC84- Comparative Government and Politics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Understand the distinctive features of the tradition of Comparative Politics
2. Enhance the student community to learn about countries and their constitutional government in details

Semester VIII- POLE85 - Development Administration (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. This course will enable the students to enhance the nation-building task in fruitful manner
2. This course also makes the students to know about the significant role of bureaucracy in the making and implementation of policies.
3. The student will be able to promote the e-governance since it encompasses the accountability and transparency in administration

Semester VIII- POLE86 - John Locke's Two Treaties On Civil Government (DE)

Course Outcomes

1. To get apprised with the philosophical ideals of Locke
2. To know about the theory of State
3. To learn about the ideals related with the state

Semester- IX POLC91 - Modern Political Analysis

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Formulate hypotheses and theories about political dynamics
2. Effectively communicate political analysis in written and oral forms
3. Recognize and generate sound argument to conduct political analysis

Semester- IX POLC92 - Government and Politics of Tamil Nadu Since 1900

Course Outcomes At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. discern the connects and disconnects between structure, purpose and process and results in government and politics of Tamil Nadu
2. Understand the centre state relationship as the main instrument of State to achieve its developmental goals
3. Appreciate the varying historical, socio-economic, political and other conditioning factors that gave Administration its distinct nature to the learner
4. comprehend the institutional arrangements and processes of rural and urban governance

Semester- IX POLC93-Legislative Procedures

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Describe the various chambers and people who make up Parliament
2. Explain the different types of Bills Explain how an Act of Parliament is made
3. Critically evaluate the legislative process Identify the key legislative documents and how to read them
4. influence students to get involved in shaping public opinion

Semester- IX POLC94- Human Rights in India

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Have a solid knowledge of the theories and concepts underpinning the fields of human rights and global justice, international law and sustainable development, and of the ways these are applied in practice.
2. Identify different forums for promoting and implementing human rights, domestically as well as on the international level participate in legal, political and other debates involving human rights in a knowledgeable and constructive way work in conjunction with human rights specialists and other scholars in expanding knowledge about human rights as well as promoting respect for the values they embody and symbolize

Semester- IX POLE95 - Federal Theory and Practice (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Comparatively analyze the following institutions of UK and Canada legislature, Executive and party systems.
2. Use of concepts in order to critically research, analyze and evaluative major issues in federalism. Develop skills for research arguments.
3. To inculcate about the practice of Federalism

Semester- IX POLE96- Political Parties, Pressure Groups And Public Opinion (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Recognize the significance and role of public opinion.
2. Evaluate public opinion and presser groups with special reference to India
3. Students learn about various agencies that contribute for the formative of public opinion

Semester- X POLC-101 -Research Methodology

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. The students easily knowing about the nature of scientific method
2. To getting information regarding methods of social science research and the concepts.
3. The students can easily find out the solution regarding the research projects

Semester- X POLC102-Contemporary Political Theory

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. May understand about critical theories
2. Know how to perceive social issues
3. Solve intricacies of society by knowing different ideas

Semester- X POLC103 - India in World Affairs

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. produce capable Students community with clear idea on International Politics
2. make awareness about World Affairs which may broaden the knowledge of Students community.
3. generate inquisitive awareness about the present happenings

Semester –X POLV104- Project & Viva Voce

Course Outcomes:

The student can able to know the various aspects of research practically

1. Able to do research with more confidence and individuality

INTER DEPARTMENTAL ELECTIVES

Semester- VII POLX75 - Indian Government and Politics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. this course provides knowledge about the constitutional provision.
2. this course makes the students to understand the Center, State and Local Government.
3. this course makes active deliberation about amendment process in India

Semester VII- POLX76 - International Relations

Course Outcomes

1. This course enables to comprehend, critically analyze, and evaluate trends in international politics, economics, culture, communication, and law.
2. Students will be able to interpret the external and internal dynamics of foreign policy decisionmaking processes.
3. Identify comprehensive paradigm of multi-disciplinary nature of international relations.

Semester VIII- POLX87- Political Science- I

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. This course makes the students to gain Rudimentary concepts and Principles of Political Science. It will enhance the better way of understanding the various Political Ideas and Ideologies in detail.
2. It will impact the knowledge about the organizations and function of the State.

Semester VIII- POLX88 - Indian Administration

Course Outcomes:

1. The students will be aware of the various features of administration of different periods in India.
2. The student will be attentive in elucidating the role of constitutional authorities for the general welfare in Indian administration
3. The course will be impactful in assessing the pivotal role of district collector in the development administration of the country.

Semester IX- POLX97 - Political Science – II

Course Outcomes

1. To know the basics of Political science
2. To learn about the theories of state

3. To get apprised with Integration

Semester IX- POLX98 - Legislative Procedures

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Describe the various chambers and people who make up Parliament
2. Explain the different types of Bills
3. Explain how an Act of Parliament is made Critically evaluate the legislative process
4. Identify the key legislative documents and how to read them.
5. Influence students to get involved in shaping public opinion.

M.A POLITICAL SCIENCE (Two-Year) Programme

Semester- I OLC-101- Principles of Political Theory

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. gain Rudimentary concepts and understand the meaning of Political Science
2. enhance the better way of understanding idea of State
3. analyse various theories of the State
4. learn major concepts of political science such as Rights, Liberty, Equality, etc.,
5. understand various ideologies of Political Science.

Semester- I POLC-102-Western Political Thought

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. strengthen his/her knowledge about various Greek Political Thinkers
2. analyse and evaluate political thought of Medieval Period, and also guide the younger generation to know for the better construction of modern state.
3. understand through social contractual thinkers, the basic concept like the political community, social order, and human nature and aim of the state.
4. learn the growth and development of Western Political Thought and develop ability of critical thinking. enhance his knowledge of Political thought, or political philosophy and also nurture the better understanding to raise the questions of power, justice, rights, law and other issues pertaining to governance.

Semester- I POLC-103- Indian Constitution and Administration

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Gain in depth knowledge about the constitutional development
2. Secure knowledge about basic features of Indian constitution and learn critical analysis of the same.
3. Understand the organization and functions Center government. Learn structure and functions of State and Local Government.
4. Make active deliberation about amendment process in India.

Semester- I POLC-104-Theories and Practices Of Public Administration

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Develop knowledge of mechanisms operating in the major political institutions and agencies for the creation and implementation of public policies.
2. Make himself/herself familiar with the predominant political, economic, and social actors that actively engage in the policymaking process, including expert communities, interest groups, the media, agency bureaucrats, and elected officials.
3. Understand knowledge of financial administration of India.

Semester- II POLC201 - Indian Political Thought

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Have broad understanding about the Indian Philosophers and also cherishes the ideals of national movement of India

2. Differentiate moderates and extremists
3. Acquaint with roots of modern India

Semester- II POLC202 – Dynamics of Indian Democracy

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Equip himself/herself with the knowledge about the constitutional provision of India.
2. Understand the Centre, State and Local Government in detail.
3. Develop active deliberation about electoral process in India
4. Enrich the knowledge and understand the consisting during issues in India

Semester- II POLC203 - International Politics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Have clear ideas on International Politics
2. Develop awareness about World Affairs which may broaden the knowledge of Students community.
3. Generate inquisitive awareness about the present worlds order and also about what happenings.

Semester- II POLC204 - Comparative Government and Politics

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Understand the distinctive features of the tradition of Comparative Politics
2. Enhance his/her knowledge about countries and their constitutional government in details
3. Gain comparative knowledge of various political system of the world.

Semester- II POLE205 - Development Administration (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Enhance the nation-building task in fruitful manner
2. Know about the significant role of bureaucracy in the making and implementation of policies.
3. Promote the e-governance since it encompasses the accountability and transparency in Administration

Semester- II POLE206 - John Locke's Two Treaties on Civil Government

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Gain in depth the philosophical ideals of Locke
2. Know about the theory of State Learn about the ideals related with the state and evaluate Locke as a Political thinker.

Semester- III POLC-301 - Modern Political Analysis

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Formulate hypotheses and theories about political dynamics
2. Effectively communicate political analysis in written and oral form
3. Recognize and generate sound argument to conduct political analysis

Semester- III POLC302 - Government and Politics of Tamil Nadu Since 1900

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Discern the connects and disconnects between structure, purpose and process and results in government and politics of Tamilnadu
2. Understand the centre state relationship as the main instrument of State to achieve its developmental goals
3. Appreciate the varying historical, socio-economic, political and other conditioning factors that gave Administration its distinct nature to the learner
4. Comprehend the institutional arrangements and processes of rural and urban governance

Semester- III POLC-303 -Legislative Procedures

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. describe the various chambers and people who make up Parliament explain the different types of Bills
2. explain how an Act of Parliament is made
3. critically evaluate the legislative process Identify the key legislative documents and how to read them.
4. influence students to get involved in shaping public opinion

Semester- III POLC-304 - Human Rights in India

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Have a solid knowledge of the theories and concepts underpinning the fields of human rights and global justice, international law and sustainable development, and of the ways these are applied in practice.
2. Identify different forums for promoting and implementing human rights, domestically as well as on the international level participate in legal, political and other debates involving human rights in a knowledgeable and constructive way work in conjunction with human rights specialists and other scholars in expanding knowledge about human rights as well as promoting respect for the values they embody and symbolize

Semester-III POLC305- Soft Skills

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Be acquainted with educational skills Know about effective listening skills
2. Appreciate effective reading ability

Semester-III POLE306 - Federal Theory And Practice (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Comparatively analyse the following institutions of UK and Canada legislature, Executive and party systems.
2. Use concepts in order to critically research, analyze and evaluative major issues in federalism. Develop skills for research arguments.
3. To inculcate about the practice of Federalism

Semester-III POLE307 - Political Parties, Pressure Groups And Public Opinion (DE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Recognize the significance and role of public opinion.
2. Evaluate public opinion and pressure groups with special reference to India
3. Learn about various agencies that contribute for the formation of public opinion

Semester- IV POLC-401 -Research Methodology

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Know about the nature of scientific method
2. Get information regarding methods of social science research and the concepts
3. Find out the solution regarding the research projects

Semester- IV POLC-402 -Contemporary Political Theory

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. understand about critical theories
2. know how to perceive social issues
3. solve intricacies of society by knowing different ideas

Semester- IV POLC-403 -India In World Affairs

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. develop clear idea on International Politics
2. make awareness about World Affairs which may broaden the knowledge generate inquisitive awareness about the present happening

Semester- IV POLV-404 - Project & Viva Voce

Course Outcomes:

The student can able to know the various aspects of research practically

1. Able to do research with more confidence and individuality
2. The student must undertake a research project in anyone of the interested topic in consultation of his research guide and successfully complete it with Viva-Voce examination.

INTER DEPARTMENTAL ELECTIVE COURSES

Semester- I POLX105 Indian Government And Politics (IDE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. To attain knowledge about the constitutional provision.
2. To understand the Center, State and Local Government.
3. develop active deliberation about amendment process in India

Semester- I POLX106 International Relations (IDE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Comprehend, critically analyze, and evaluate trends in international politics, economics, culture, communication, and law.
2. Interpret the external and internal dynamics of foreign policy decision-making processes.

3. Identify comprehensive paradigm of multi-disciplinary nature of international relations.

Semester- II POLX207 - Political Science- I (IDE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Gain Rudimentary concepts and Principles of Political Science.
2. Enhance the better way of understanding the various Political Ideas and Ideologies in detail
3. Attain the knowledge about the organizations and function of the State.

Semester- II POLX208 - Indian Administration (IDE)

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Be aware of the various features of administration of different periods in India
2. Be attentive in elucidating the role of constitutional authorities for the general welfare in Indian administration
3. Be impactful in assessing the pivotal role of district collector in the development administration of the country.

Semester-III POLX 308 - Political Science – II (IDE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. know the basics of Political science learn about the theories of state
2. get apprised with Integration

Semester-III POLX309 - Legislative Procedures (IDE)

Course Outcomes

At the end of the course, the student will be able to

1. Describe the various chambers and people who make up Parliament. Explain the different types of Bills.
2. Explain how an Act of Parliament is made
3. Critically evaluate the legislative process
4. Identify the key legislative documents and how to read them
5. Get involved in shaping public opinion.